

32 Avenue de Florimont
1006 Lausanne
+33670830263
clotilde.trivin@unil.ch

Clotilde Trivin | Curriculum Vitae

Ph.D Candidate | Department of Geography and Sustainability | University of Lausanne

WORK EXPERIENCE

October 2020 – present

Ph.D Candidate and Teaching Assistant in Urban Studies

University of Lausanne – Unil, Lausanne, Switzerland.

Ph.D. Candidate under the supervision of Pr. Martin Müller

- Member of the Research Project 2020-2024 “Cultural Flagships: Global pathways, practices and politics”
- Member of the Urban studies research group
- Member of the research group M³ – Materialities | Multiplicities | Metropolis
- Research interests: global urbanism, political geography, everyday practices, affective atmospheres, more-than-human urban politics, decolonial approaches to urban studies.

2018 – 2019

Game-Master at the “Hint-Hunt” Escape-Game, Paris.

2010 – 2018

Private tutoring in English and Humanities.

TRAINING

MASTER

2018-2020

Master in Geopolitics “Russian and Post-soviet spaces”

French Institute of Geopolitics, Saint-Denis.

- Principal academic subjects covered: regional geopolitics, political geography, urban planning, urban governance, digital geographies.
- Master 2 thesis “Spectacle in Saransk: the rise of a specific development model in a Russian regional capital” (awarded 18/20)
- Master 1 thesis “The Belt and Road Initiative and the Kazakh national identity” (awarded 19/20)
- Master awarded with Summa cum laude

BACHELOR

2018 - 2019

Bachelor in Geography “Spaces, Territories and Societies”

University Pantheon Sorbonne, Paris.

- Main topics covered: urban studies, developmental geography, urban planning, geopolitics, regional geography and physical geography.

- Awarded with Cum laude

PREPARATORY CLASS

Humanities. Speciality: History and Geography

Jean-Pierre Vernant, Sèvres.

2014- 2017

- Main topics covered: Philosophy, literature, history, geography and languages.
- Entry exam for the National Higher School : qualified

TEACHING AND ADVISING

2020 – 2022

Teaching assistant of the Bachelor Course “Geographic Thought”

Co-advisor of two Bachelor Theses

PUBLICATIONS

2022

Trivin, Clotilde, Gogishvili, David, 2022. “Listening to buildings: exploring the Lucerne Culture and Congress Centre through sound”, GeoAgenda, 2022/1, p.10-11.

2021

Müller, Martin, Trivin, Clotilde, 2021. “La géopolitique du savoir géographique : à la recherche des Ests », p.93-99 in Argounès Fabrice (eds.), Géographies du Politique, Presses de Sciences Po, Paris.

PRESENTATIONS

August 2022

RC-21 Athens. Co-presentation with Dr. Julio Paulos, “Making a building political: unpacking more-than-human arrangements of built form.”

June 2022

IGU Paris. Co-presentation with Violante Torre, “L’émergence de nouveaux espaces muséaux ? Enjeux politiques et territoriaux autour de deux centres culturels à Istanbul et Gdańsk.”

January 2017

Eurasian Research Institute, Almaty. “The Belt and Road initiative and Kazakh national identity”

CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

October 2022

(forthcoming) Co-organization with Dr. David Gogishvili and Violante Torre of the roundtable “Decolonizing culture and the city” at the conference “Decolonizing environmental studies”, University of Lausanne.

August 2022

Co-organization with Dr. David Gogishvili and Dr. Julio Paulos of the panel “Cultural flagships: pathways, practices and politics of an urban intervention” at RC-21, Athens.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

French: native proficiency | English: fluent working proficiency | Polish: intermediate proficiency | Russian: intermediate proficiency | German: elementary proficiency speaking and writing